THIS IS JOE

He's a City Planner
But Joe has a problem...

He wastes too much time copying, sorting and storing project plans

So Joe searches online for a paperless plan review solution… and discovers:

CityView

CityView Electronic Plans Review

- Replaces copying and storing paper plans with a digital process
- Provides residents, contractors and design professionals a means to directly upload electronic plans and related documents, via the CityView Portal
- Stores all project-related documents in a central repository for easy sharing, review and markup, using Bluebeam® Revu®
- Speeds up the review process and increases the efficiency of the City planning department
- Consolidates comments from all reviewers into a single correction notice to the applicant

Now Joe's department has a faster, more consistent review cycle.
